Fire Alarm System: The fire alarm system was put to the test last Thursday when steam from cooking set off the alarm. Building evacuation went flawlessly and the fire trucks arrived to check out the kitchen. All was well and we are comforted to know that the fire department will indeed arrive in response to the alarm.

ROUND UP: ~~The Round Up is this Saturday!! Don't miss your chance to attend this exciting event. The class auction items are spectacular! Tickets are $45.00 each and are available either this week or at the door. Help your child's class win a pizza party!~~

Report Cards: Report cards are in today's Monday Envelope. Please sign them and return them to school or bring them with you to your conference.

Parent/Teacher Conferences: Parent / Teacher conferences are this week (on November 10th & 11th). If you requested a conference, you have received a notice with your scheduled time. If not, please contact your child's teacher. 7th & 8th grade parents are encouraged to meet with the Judge teachers as well. Contact Judge for details. Yes, there will be 12:30 dismissal and regular EDP (until 6:00 only) on both conference days.
7th & 8th grades will dismiss at 1:30 due to the Judge schedule.

December Lunch Orders: Be sure to complete your December lunch order form and return it to school by November 16th.

Judge Open House: Judge Memorial High School is having an open house on November 19th for parents who are considering Judge as a high school for their children for the 2010/2011 school year. See the attached flyer.

Altar Servers: There will NOT be an altar server training this Wednesday. The next training day will be Wednesday, November 18th after school from 3:15 – 3:45.

Lost and Found: The Lost and Found cabinet is quite full. If your child is missing something, please check the cabinet. It will be emptied out at Thanksgiving. The school logoed clothing will go into the uniform exchange. Other clothing will be sent to a shelter. Clothing with a name in it is returned to its owner, so make sure all your child's clothing is labeled.
